Quick Setup Guidance

Step 1
Connect power adaptor for camera and IP server. Connect network cable to server.

Step 2
Install the client side software of IP server
Default IP address is: 192.168.1.168

After correctly installed, you will find the icon at your computer.

Note: Please make sure the server is in the same network segment with your router If not, please change the server network segment to accordance with your computer

Step 3. Video display

Double click , enter the user name and password for entry. User name: admin; Password: blank

After login, please click discover in the display window, and click add
There will be an IP address show at below of this setting page. Please DRUG the camera to the display area.
Notice:
Please enable the ActiveX from the IE browser for WAN monitoring
For details operation please refer to the full-version user manual.